ACCOMMODATION:

Accommodation is in the home of a local 'host' family. Our Accommodation Officer takes a great deal of care in selecting the most appropriate family for you. We look in particular for people who can offer a warm, friendly welcome and who understand the needs of overseas students. All families have been screened for your safety and security.

- Host families treat you as a full member of the household, eating together and sharing the common living areas
- You have your own private single bedroom in the home of your host family
- Shower and toilet facilities are located close to bedrooms

- All meals are included in the course fee
- Breakfast and evening meals are taken with the family every day
- The host family provides a packed lunch to take to school every weekday
